

Rainbow Canyon Ranch
Riding School Rules and Regulations

I understand when using the facility proper etiquette and courtesy will be used. No running, shouting or roughhousing is allowed.

Initial _____

I understand proper riding attire is required. Closed shoes with hard soles will be worn while around the horses.

Initial _____

I am responsible for proper clean up of the crossties, manure removal as well as putting away all tack and equipment.

Initial _____

I understand an ASTM approved helmet is required at all times while mounted.

Initial _____

I understand that 24-hour notice is required to cancel a lesson and that full price for the lesson will be charged should I not provide that notice.

Initial _____

In case of rain or other forces of nature, lessons may be cancelled; I will call and check the conditions.

Initial _____

I understand that RCR does not bill for lessons and I will pay at the time of service, or in advance.

Initial _____

I understand that RCR does not allow smoking, dogs or cars in the barn area.

Initial _____

I understand that I may not pet or feed any horse with out the owner's permission.

Initial _____

I understand that I am responsible to advise my guests of all rules and regulations, as well as the dangers of equestrian activities. I understand that I will be held liable for any damages caused by the actions or behavior of my guest(s).

Initial _____

I understand that riding and handling horses is hazardous, and I willingly and knowingly assume that risk.

Initial _____

Signed _____ Date _____